Question

I Wonder

1. Read or listen to text.
 2. Make a list of 3-5 'I Wonder' statements ...
- E.g. I wonder if animals can survive in the wilderness?
I wonder how many beats per minute the tiger's heart needs to pump?
I wonder who influenced the artist?

Making Connections

KEY WORD Summary

You need: Highlighter or Sticky strips

1. As you read, identify with a highlighter or sticky strips the Key Words.
2. In pairs compare points and tell why you chose to mark each one.

V.I.P. Summarise

You need: Highlighter or Sticky strips

1. As you read, identify with a highlighter or sticky strips the V.I.P. (Very Important Points).
2. In pairs compare points and tell why you chose to mark each one.

Strategy	V.I.P. (Very Important Points)
Purpose 	Summarise information Identify the main ideas in a text Explicitly teach students which information is important to the main idea Enable students to write an effective paragraph based on identified information in text  It is important to find main ideas when reading. Main ideas help readers remember important information.
When to use it	As you read a piece of text for the first time and are summarising the key points Enable students to write independently and with meaning Persuasive writing, Information reports, Reviews, Explanations Explicitly teaching PEEL Short answer writing Reviewing / revising a topic
How to use it	Whole class, groups, pairs or individual
What to do	If the class have not used the target scaffold before, model process on board as a whole class You need: Highlighter or Sticky strips <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. As you read, identify with a highlighter or sticky strips the V.I.P. (Very Important Points). 2. In pairs compare points and tell why you chose to mark each one.
Adjustments / Modifications	Low ability – teacher led / group / pairs High support needs – focus on one paragraph and look for 2 key ideas
Time / Resource	0 min preparation 15 – 30 minute activity (includes identifying key information in text and students having a conversation about why they chose key ideas. Can have students report back to whole class. As a class, select the most important points, display them on board and have students construct their own summary paragraph using the V.I.P.) Power point resource slide. Text (text bk, p/copy) Highlighter or sticky strips.
Extension ideas	- Mid/High ability – Independent writing of sum up paragraph. Proof read with partner and check for understanding. Volunteers to read paragraph to class.

MONITORING From Assessment to Conferring: Sample Needs and Strategies

What We Are Seeing	Potential Goals	Possible Strategy	Alternative Strategy
Reading too quickly	Fluency	Adjust and apply different reading rates to match text	Phrasing, use punctuation
Leaving off ends of words	Accuracy	Cross checking	Chunk letters together
Little expression, lacks prosody, and omits punctuation	Fluency	Phrasing, using punctuation	Voracious reading
Can't remember what was read	Comprehension	Check for understanding	Retell or summarize Make a picture or mental image Determine importance using theme, main ideas, & supporting details
Stalls on words	Accuracy	Skip the word, then come back	Blend sounds; stretch and reread
Student jumps right into reading story, then lacks understanding	Comprehension	Use prior knowledge to connect with text	Ask questions while reading Make connections to text
Doesn't remember details but understands the main idea	Comprehension	Retell the story	Recognize literary elements
Doesn't stick with a book	Reading Behaviors Book Selection	Read appropriate-level text Choose good-fit books	Voracious reading
Chooses books that are too hard	Reading Behaviors Fluency Expand Vocabulary Comprehension Accuracy	Read appropriate-level text	Ask, Does this make sense?
Can comprehend literally but can't read between the lines	Comprehension	Infer and support with evidence	Ask questions while reading Predict what will happen; use text to confirm
Reads words with correct letters but wrong sounds	Accuracy	Flip the sound	Cross checking
Sounds out each individual letter	Accuracy	Chunk letters together	Blend sounds
Beginning reader, knows few words but most letter sounds	Fluency Accuracy	Practice common sight words and high-frequency words	Blend sounds; stretch and reread
Doesn't remember details from nonfiction	Comprehension	Use text features (titles, headings, captions, graphic features)	Determine and analyze author's purpose and support with text
Doesn't understand the text because does not understand key word in selection	Expand Vocabulary	Tune in to interesting words	Reread to clarify the meaning of a word Ask someone to define the word for you

SPEAKING AND LISTENING 1

Objective A:
communicate through speaking, listening, reading, writing, viewing and

Stage Two EN2-1A

communicates in a range of informal and formal contexts by adopting a range of roles in group, classroom, school and community contexts

Exploring ethical and social relationships

Develop and apply contextual knowledge *understand the ways in which spoken language differs from written language when adopting a range of roles *interpret ideas and information in spoken texts and listen for key points in order to carry out tasks and use information to share and extend ideas and information (ACELY1687) *understand that social interactions influence the way people engage with ideas and respond to others for example when exploring and clarifying the ideas of others, summarising their own views and reporting them to a larger group (ACELA1488) Understand and apply knowledge of language forms and features *understand that successful cooperation with others depends on shared use of social conventions, including turn-taking patterns, and forms of address that vary according to the degree of formality in social situations (ACELA1476) *understand and adopt the different roles in a debate, eg through experience of formal debates and role-playing Respond to, and compose texts
* plan, rehearse and deliver presentations incorporating learned content and taking *use interaction skills, including active listening behaviours and communicate in a clear, coherent manner using a variety of everyday and learned vocabulary and appropriate tone, pace, pitch and volume (ACELY1688, ACELY1792) *use information to support and elaborate on a point of view *demonstrate understanding of ideas and issues in texts through dramatic representation, role-play and simulations *retell or perform part of a story from a character's point of view *adapt language to suit familiar situations, eg giving instructions to a younger child *respond appropriately to the reading of texts to demonstrate enjoyment and pleasure

* understand how texts are made cohesive through the use of linking devices including pronoun reference and text connectives (ACELA1491)
* know that word contractions are a feature of informal language and that apostrophes of contraction are used to signal missing letters (ACELA1480)
* skim a text for overall message and scan for particular information, eg headings, key words
* identify and explain language features of texts from earlier times and compare with the vocabulary, images, layout and content of contemporary texts (ACELY1686) **
Develop and apply graphological, phonological, syntactic and semantic knowledge
* use graphological, phonological, syntactic and semantic strategies to respond to texts, eg knowledge of homophones, contractions, syllables, word families and common prefixes
* identify syllables in in order to support decoding of longer words in context to make meaning
* recognise high frequency sight words (ACELA1486) Respond to, read and view texts
* read different types of texts by combining contextual, semantic, grammatical and phonic knowledge using text processing strategies for example monitoring meaning, cross checking and reviewing (ACELY1679, ACELY1691) **
* read texts, including poems and scripted drama, using appropriate expression, eg pitch, pause, emphasis and attending to punctuation
* use comprehension strategies to build literal and inferred meaning to expand content knowledge, integrating and linking ideas and analysing and evaluating texts (ACELY1680, ACELY1692) **
* use strategies to confirm predictions about author intent in imaginative, informative and persuasive texts
* recognise how aspects of personal perspective influence responses to texts
* recognise cohesive links in texts, eg pronouns that refer back to particular people or things, and understand how they contribute to meaning multisyllabic words
* connect information by observing text connectives
* summarise a paragraph and indicate the main idea, key points or key arguments in imaginative, informative and persuasive texts
* interpret text by discussing the differences between literal and inferred meanings
* justify interpretations of a text, including responses to characters, information and ideas
